Project “It’s #uptoyouth!”

Project number: 2020-1-RO01-ESC11-079573

The project is the second edition of an initial project, International Volunteer for Craiova Youth Capital and starts from the feedback obtained from the young people consulted by us and the other 40 associations from the Craiova Capital initiative group Youth 2021.

The aim of the project: relaunching the Craiova Youth Capital 2022 candidacy by increasing the involvement of local and international young people in youth activities of the local community or the parallel growth of the #uptoyouth concept, developed by civil society.

Project objectives:

O1: supporting the large-scale activities carried out by the Craiova Capital of Youth initiative group (the future Federation of Craiova Youth) made by young people for young people in Craiova during mobility and carrying out 5 activities in partner communities during the follow-up period

O2: supporting the implementation in Craiova of the local youth strategy through the support offered for at least 15 local young people, including at least 5 disadvantaged young people who want to implement projects in the local community starting with organizing a number of 5 events in response to areas proposed for funding by Craiova City Hall in the context of Law 350: performing arts, education, sports, environment.

O3: development of key competences for lifelong learning of 10 young people from 5 countries (PT, GE, SP, BG, RO) with an emphasis on cultural awareness and expression skills, digital skills, personal, social and learning skills learn, entrepreneurial skills, creativity and initiative, civic skills

O4: promoting local and international volunteering and the #uptoyouth concept among young people from Craiova and their parents throughout the project by organizing 2 #Uptoyouth events

In the long run, we want to:

- Supporting the relaunch of the candidacy in Craiova - Capital of Youth 2022 and the #uptoyouth concept
- finding new ways of promoting the activity for young people to involve them in the community and in its decision-making processes
- Capacity of local young people to plan and implement projects with local financial support (law 350) or European (solidarity projects) in the fields of performing arts, education, sports, environment
- Increasing the number of local events organized by young people that help them grow and connect them to the community
- increasing the awareness about the opportunities offered by ESC and Erasmus + for young people from Craiova and Dolj County
- changing the local mentality regarding volunteering
